

Miss Shaw's Newsletter

Dear parents and carers,

Welcome back to the final half term of the academic year! I hope that you all enjoyed the week's break and the wonderful weather. Whilst on that note, please can we ask that the children bring sun hats and have a covering of sun cream when they come to school.

We are expecting our next update from Mr Johnson on Monday ready for the 21st June. The news reports over the last few days seem to be pointing towards a more cautious move forward in the changes to the restrictions in place. We will be reviewing our risk assessment in line with the Government's expectations and I will write to you should we be able to make any changes. Many of you have asked if we will be back to "normal" in September but I simply do not know. I will make sure that you all have the information you need for September as early as I possibly can. I will be notifying you about classes and teachers in July.

We have a busy week coming up as we join our local schools for a Poetry Week. We will be watching two sessions led by two very different poets and then writing our own poetry. We are looking forward to hearing from Chris White and Nick Toczek and I am sure they will inspire our children to be very creative with their ideas.

Stay safe.

Miss Shaw
