

Reading Success in Year 2

I can read words quickly because I know how to sound out all parts of a word.	I read by blending together the sounds I know and can read out within a word.	I can read words with two or three syllables.	I can read words with common word endings, such as -ing and -ed.	I can read a range of unusual words from our word lists.	I can read most words quickly and accurately.
When I see a word I have not read before, I can sound out the word without help from an adult.	When I re-read my books, I become better and better at reading the text.	I listen, discuss and can say what I think about poems, stories and non-fiction books I have read.	When I read, I am able to tell you about things in the order they happen and if they are connected.	I can tell you about all the different stories I have read.
I enjoy finding out about non-fiction books and how they are set out.	I can recognise simple language patterns in stories and poems.	I discuss the meaning of words.	I am happy to tell you my favourite words and phrases from my reading.	I can say out loud a number of poems I have learnt.	I understand the books I can read.
I check what I am reading makes sense as I read through it.	I can tell you why certain things happen in a book or why a character says the things they do.	I can answer and ask questions about what I have read.	I like to guess what happens next in a story, using what I already know has gone on before.	I take turns to discuss and listen to others about what I have read.
I can explain and discuss what has happened in books that either I have read or have been read to me.
