

	History Explorers	Geography Map skills	RE 1.3 Why does Christmas matter to Christians?	Computing Typing skills	Science Animals including Humans; About our bodies	Music Rhythm in the way we walk	Art/DT Colour Chaos
Week 1 02.11.20	I am learning to find out about one of the first explorers in history.	I am learning to develop and follow directional language.	I am learning to understand what the word incarnation means.	I am learning understand what a qwerty keyboard is and why it is set out the way it is.	I am learning to compare generations of families of humans, plants and animals to understand how characteristics are inherited.	I am learning to keep the beat. I am learning to sing a new song. I am learning to understand what reggae music is.	I am learning to know what the primary colours are. I am learning to make a collage.
Week 2 09.11.20	I am learning to find out when Christopher Columbus lived and what he was trying to achieve.	I am learning how to use a compass.	I am learning about 'kinship'.	I am learning to use a qwerty keyboard and practise my typing skills.	I am learning the importance of nutrition for humans.	I am learning to keep a rhythm. I am learning to appraise a piece of music.	I am learning to mix colours.
Week 3 16.11.20	I am learning to find out about Christopher Columbus' journey and what he discovered.	I am learning how to use a compass to follow directions.	I am learning to say why the birth of Jesus was so important.	I am learning to use a qwerty keyboard and practise my typing skills.	I know how to keep healthy through diet.	I am learning to carry out a vocal warm up. I am learning to learn a new song.	I am learning to make tints.
Week 4 23.11.20	I am learning to explore the impact of Christopher Columbus voyages and what he brought back to Europe.	I am learning to use simple observations/fieldwork skills to study the surrounding environment.	I am learning to think about 'why Christmas matters to Christians'.	I am learning to use a qwerty keyboard and practise my typing skills.	I am learning to keep healthy through daily exercise.	I am learning to understand what a rap is. I am learning a new song.	I am learning to create a drip painting using colours I have mixed.

Week 5 30.11.20	I am learning to find out who Neil Armstrong was and why he is remembered today.	I am learning to devise a simple map and use basic symbols in a key.	I am learning to think about what the characters might have been thinking or feeling at certain points of the nativity story.	I am learning to understand the following keys: space bar, return, tab, caps lock, shift, and arrows.	I am learning to find out about the basic needs of animals, including humans, for survival.	I am learning to perform a piece of music.	I am learning to create a painting using warm and cool colours.
Week 6 07.12.20	I am learning to find out about Neil Armstrong's landing on the moon and the impact it had on the moon. I am learning to understand who Tim Peake is.	I am learning to devise a simple map and use basic symbols in a key.	I am learning to understand the lessons learnt from the Christmas story.	I am learning to understand what a mouse / touchpad does and understand the left/right click functionality of a mouse/touchpad.		I am learning to continue to perfect my rhythm and timing.	I am learning to create a circles painting using colours I have mixed myself.
Week 7 14.12.20	I am learning to compare the lives and achievements of Columbus and Armstrong.		I am learning to say how Christians use the nativity story to celebrate Jesus' birth.	I am learning to use a qwerty keyboard and practise my typing skills.		I am learning to perform in front of an audience.	Christmas crafts.