PRESS RELEASE – SAFER FRONTIERS PUBLIC LAUNCH 9th FEB

Internet Safety Day

Safer Frontiers - Young Film Maker's Project SAFEN3T & Badshoes Production

Safer Frontiers is a series of 4 inspirational films entirely scripted, filmed and produced by aspiring young filmmakers from Leicester. Commissioned and supported by SAFEN3T we have worked closely with Badshoes Film to realise these unique and ground-breaking films, developed to confront online issues affecting young people today.

Lesson Plans – Each of these award-winning films is accompanied by lesson plans for teachers, parents and professionals available at www.safen3t.co.uk

The Safer Frontiers film project involves 4 films by 5 young film makers which approach the following issues

- Stripped by Jess O'Brien, 16 – Tackling consequences of sharing nude imagery (sexting)
- My Friend Frank By Joel Caborn 18 – Tackling risk around online gaming, exploitation and neglect
- Layla by Josh Green, 16 & Yasmine Allen 15 – Tackling fake personas, isolation and "catfishing"
- Recruit by Harry Statham, 18 – Tackling issues of far-right radicalization, group behaviour and football violence
