Helston & Mullion News

PLEASE NOTE, there is NO MASS on THURSDAY this week, as all the clergy in the Diocese have been summoned to the cathedral.

A VERY WARM WELCOME to those visiting us for Mass today, and to all those returning after a while away. It is really good to see so many people returning to Sunday worship. Regulars will notice that we have removed all the tape and signs from the benches, and some extra chairs have been added, but this most certainly does NOT mean that the pandemic is over. With an increasing number of visitors arriving in family bubbles the signage made seating a bit difficult. Family bubbles may always sit together, but everyone else must keep to the approved social distance separation of at least 1 metre, face coverings must continue to be worn and the one-way system must be followed. In view of the recent rise in cases in Cornwall, the windows and doors will now all remain open through the summer months for increased ventilation. Please read the little slip on the table for full information on our precautions.

Morning Prayer is recited publicly on Tuesdays and Thursdays 20 minutes before mass. All are welcome to join in. No books are necessary.

At public masses we are now reciting the "Prayer for Spiritual Communion" not only for the benefit of those who are watching on-line, but also to remind those actually able to be at worship in church that we are all a part of a much larger worshipping community.

We are still waiting to hear when our hall may re-open, we hope it will be sometime later this month, but we have to obey both the latest government instructions and Diocesan & national Church guidance, which is not always the same as for other halls.

Although parishioners may occasionally receive things (like the YouTube mass) from me from my Google account please only send emails to frpaulandrew@live.com I would ask you never use the Helston@prcdtr... or paul.andrew@prcdtr... or the @gmail accounts as I do not check these as regularly, expecting everything to be in the @live.com account.

CAFOD

We would love to reinvigorate our parish CAFOD group. Please pray to see if you are moved to help the parish "hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor" and to reach out to our sisters and brothers around the world through CAFOD. Do please speak to Hilary in the parish office and/or contact Simon Giarchi, our diocesan CAFOD coordinator on: 07920751180 or plymouth@cafod.org.uk

Once we have the names of those interested Simon will organise a meeting to get everyone together either in person or online, depending on guidance.

Betty Bevans

Some of our more mature parishioners will remember Betty fondly and be sad to learn that she has died aged 97. Please remember her in your prayers. May the Lord grant her eternal rest.

From Father Brian

Baptism is the door by which we enter into the Christian life and family. Through our baptism we become missionaries for our Lord. Just like the disciples in today's Gospel we are sent out by Jesus to share our faith by word, action and example. May Jesus grant us the grace and strength to fulfil our vocation given to us by God.

This weekend is Sea Sunday and there is normally a second collection for Stella Maris, known to most of us as Apostleship of the Sea. However, we will celebrate 'Sea Sunday' and take a second collection on the weekend of 24th/25th July. Hopefully by then restrictions will have been lifted and we will be able to celebrate more fully and have an 'Appeal Talk' by a member of Stella Maris.

Have a good and safe week.

Points to Ponder

Baptism is the initial step of a faithful heart.

(Max Lucado)

Our vocation to be beautiful must be full of thought for others.

(St. Mother Teresa)

So, our vocation is to go, not just to one parish, not just to one diocese, but all over the world, and do what?

To set people's hearts on fire, to do what the Son of God did, He came to set the world on fire in order to inflame it with His love.

(St. Vincent de Paul)

Please Pray for the soul of Heather Ashton who died last Monday. May the Lord grant her eternal rest.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
