Class 1 have been practicing their drawing skills while looking at changes in the weather. Yesterday was an excellent day for drawing the rain!

Class 2 have been learning interesting facts about Roman soldiers and they wanted to share the following with you all.

The Roman army captured prisoners that were sold as slaves.

The Roman soldiers collected the heads of their enemies as a trophy after battle. Eugh!

The Roman army were split into groups of 6,000 men, and made to march over 30 km a day!

Following on with Class 3's topic of learning about Victorian times, yesterday afternoon their learning intention was to reach a valid & substantiated conclusion to an independently planned & investigated enquiry on work houses & children's homes.

"I agree that workhouses are a good way to keep homeless people off the street because they get a home, they get fed, they have a bed and a roof over their head."

William - Year 5

"The majority of people think that workhouses are a bad place. I agree that a workhouse is a bad place because they get caned, locked in a room at night, they are only allowed to see their parents on a Sunday."

Keeley - Year 6
