

Saint	St Teresa of Calcutta	St John Paul 2	St Francis of Assisi	St Cecilia
Colour	Blue (her head dress stripe colour)	Red (link with the polish flag)	Green(link with animals and nature)	Yellow (link with the golden organ pipes to represent her love of Music)
How it links	A saint of our times 20 th Century.	A wise leader of the moden church Vatican 2.	A local link with our community through SFA and a link with the past-through the years, God’s pilgrims continue to help.	A link with our talents; Cecilia put her talents to good use to focus her mind on her desire to serve God.
Age	Modern Female	Modern Male	Older male	Older female
Virtues shown	Curious and active Compassionate and Loving	Learned and Wise Hopeful and Faith-filled Eloquent and truthful Intentional and prophetic	Grateful and generous Compassionate and Loving	Faith-filled and hopeful Attentive and discerning
Link with British Values	She believed in mutual respect and individual liberty. She respected others cultures and backgrounds She taught democracy and democratic life styles.	He believed in the rule of law and was a great believer in fairness and democracy He taught and reminded people about mutual respect Liberty was important to him.	He was a leader– believing in people and the need for respect and recognising each others’ differences.	She fought for the right to dedicate her life to God. As a martyr, she died in her desire to be free to follow God. She respected others and helped them to be free.
Year of Mercy	She gave to the poor – she encouraged others to do so too. She loved all of her fellow humans. She was a peacemaker.	He campaigned for freedom and for justice. He sought peace for all.	He recognised the plight of the poor. He looked after the meek and the mild people of the world.	She was so aware of the need for prayer. She dedicated her whole life to God and to prayer. She helped those in need.
				