

Celebrating difference

- Can I describe the ways that I am different from my friends?
- Can I tell you why these things make me special and unique?
- Can I tell you why I am proud of the things that make me special and unique?

We have been thinking about the similarities and differences between us.

Activity:

Can I draw a picture of myself and complete a 'Celebrating me' table.

Example:

Mrs Flook

I am different from my friend because...

I have 2 sister and 2 brothers

I am a puppeteer

I can play the ukelele (a little bit)

Challenge: Why are you proud of the things that make you unique?

I am proud of the things which make me special and unique because...

they are all bits of the puzzle that makes me who I am. I am happy to be different from my friends because I can share my skills and learn new things from them.
