

Similes

Similes use as or like to compare two things

Examples:

As cold as ice

As strong as an ox

As snug as a bug in a rug

As fiery as a volcano

As light as a feather

As crooked as a witch's hat

As busy as a bee

As bright as the moon

As sly as a fox

As bold as brass

As good as good

As slippery as an eel

As blind as a bat

As smooth as silk

As old as the hills

As tough as nails

As clear as mud

As wise as an owl

Has eyes like a hawk

Sleeps like a baby

Fits like a glove

Worked like a charm

Slept like a log

Eats like a horse

Sings like a bird

Runs like the wind

Has a memory like a sieve

Metaphors

Metaphors describe one thing as being something else

Examples:

Joseph is an angel

His bedroom is a prison

Her ideas are food for thought

The snow is a frosted blanket

Her angry words were bullets in his heart

Jen felt blue

Her acting was wooden

Mel has a heart of gold

The clouds sailed across the sky

The children were monkeys in the park

The sound is music to his ears

The classroom was a refrigerator

Life is a rollercoaster

Sammy was a pig at mealtimes

It was raining cats and dogs

She is a ray of sunshine

He has a heart of stone

His pulse was racing

The moon is a white balloon

The room is a tip

Can you add your own?