Watch the link - this is a clip from the final Harry Potter film, telling the story 'The Tale of the Three Brothers' about three magical brothers who used their magic in different ways. The animation stands out within the film, as it is in a simple black and white style where we can only see silhouettes.

TASK: make shadow puppets to retell 'The Tale of the Three Brothers'. You can do this using black paper, a straw and a torch.

You could retell a different story if you choose to do so!
