

Lily & the Albatross

Far out in the wild and remote ocean there is a small family on a fishing boat. When the whipping winds threaten their little world, the family must pull together, take a leap of faith and look beyond what they have always known to get themselves and their great old boat moving again.

A family show about wild weather, wild birds and wild ambitions full of puppetry and live music for ages 5+

Lily longs for more freedom, more excitement and more time out at sea. Then one day a very special bird flies in from across the water, one that glides in the face of a storm and inspires Lily to truly stretch her wings.

Tall Tree makes theatre that touches the hearts of both adults and children, with beautiful wooden and metal puppets, live music and original stories that speak to all generations.
