2 Posts: KS1 Permanent – suitable for NQT

KS2 Maternity Cover - approximately for 2 terms – not suitable for NQT

To start: September 2021

We are looking to appoint future leaders who are energetic, committed and excited about working with an outstanding generation of children.

- Are you an exceptional teacher with passion to inspire children?
- Do you have the ability to deliver high quality learning experiences for children and staff?
- Are you a sensitive, enthusiastic individual with a good sense of humour, with children at the centre of your philosophy, willing to go the extra mile for our children?
- Are you energetic, positive and have the ability to work effectively as part of our team?
- Do you have a proven track record of raising children's achievement and attainment?
- Are you a highly effective teacher with experience across the primary age range?
- Do you have resilience, drive and vision?

In return, we can offer you:

- Experienced leaders who are highly ambitious, that really care about the children and staff at the school;
- Supportive colleagues, governors, parents and PTA;
- Quality support for staff at all stages of their career;
- High teaching staff ratios to enable smaller teaching groups and target teaching
- Inspiring outdoor areas for children to learn and play in our school grounds.

Tours to meet the staff and children can be safely arranged so that you can see for yourself our wonderful team, school and facilities. If you are unable to visit prior to the interview stage, for your application to be considered, please make contact with the school.

Please apply in writing or by email to:
