

English

Activities based around Oliver Jeffers' book 'Here we Are'.
Writing our own Roman myths
SPAG and Spelling rules
Revision of missed topics

Maths

Mental calculation strategies, place value including Roman numerals, addition and subtraction methods, calculating, time, measures, checking results, problem solving and reasoning.
Along with continuous times tables practice.

Science

Sounds: What are sounds?
How we hear sounds,
measuring sounds and changing sounds.

RE

Buddhists' approach to happiness.
The story of Siddhartha Gautama and his search for meaning.

Art and Design Technology

Learn about the importance of mosaics in Roman times and design and create some reproductions. Investigate Roman busts and their relationship to the Roman Army. Working with clay, using different techniques to create some replica busts.
Designing Roman shields.

Roman

Britain

Badgers

History/Geography

The children will use a range of resources to find out about life as it was for Iron -age Britons and about the Roman invasions: learning including the Roman army, Roman food, clothes and inventions.

Roman towns,
Boudicca and the Iron -Age Britons' resistance.

PSHE

Me and my relationships: topics include self-esteem, different feelings, working as a team.
Life Education van visit - it's great to be me.

Music

Reggae. Bob Marley/Toots and the Maytals. Listen and find a pulse.
Identify beat and rhythmic changes.
Compose using simple rhythms.

PE

Tag-rugby skills. Batting and fielding, cricket and rounders.