Spring 2020

17th January 2020

Dear Parent/Carer

Squashbox Theatre

The whole school enjoyed the production given by the above this morning and there was much fun and laughter. Thank you to FOSS for arranging this. The total raised so far for Ellie's Haven is £105.27.

Social Media

On Tuesday Year 5 and 6 had a very informative workshop on internet safety. Children were able to participate and ask any questions they needed answering.

Harry Potter Trip Year 6

Please can this trip be paid for by the 1st February. Thank you for anticipated co-operation with this.

Parent Pay

The above is now up and running for booking lunches so can parents please book even if your child is entitled to FSM. This is to avoid interrupting the children's learning every morning. Also due to the previous problems readjustments will be made to lunchtime account balances Asap. Amounts owing from the old system will be transferred to new system. Any amounts paid or lunches charged for in error due to a problem with the system to the account marked up to 18.10.2019 will also be transferred. Thank you for your patience with this.

Chickenpox

Just to make everyone aware there has been reported cases of the above in school.

Headlice

There has been reported cases of headlice, please can you check your family and treat accordingly.

London Residential

Children who will be our Years 5/6 in September will have brought a home yesterday/today regarding the above. Please can all reply slips indicating will /will not be interested be returned on Monday. This will indicate if there is enough interest to make the trip viable or not. Depending on the response this will indicate if to move it forward or scrap the idea and look at other options.
