Teach a child how they should live and they will remember it all their life. Proverbs 22:6

Poldhu class

We are very much looking forward to the year ahead and to start our learning, our first topic is 'Amazing Authors'. We have begun by sharing many stories written by Julia Donaldson with our favourite so far being 'The Gruffalo's Child.' In our English we will be learning about the features of traditional tales and in a few weeks writing our own! Like last year, the children will have a daily phonics session. During this time they will read with an adult as well as learn a different sound. In Science we are learning about the different seasons of the year and will be creating a whole class piece of artwork around the four seasons. In Maths we will be continuing to build our knowledge and understanding on number and place value. Lastly, in PE we will be focusing on Gymnastics and swimming this term. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions

Polurrian Class Topic - World War One

To mark 100 hundred years since the 1918 armistice, Polurrian Class are starting their topic on World War 1 this week. After our exciting day of enlisting, we will be virtually visiting various important sites from the great war and writing blogs to share with families on Seesaw.

After half term, we will discover how important animals were during World War 1 and using their stories to inspire our writing. We will be learning songs from the music hall tradition such as 'Pack Up Your Troubles'. As well as swimming every Friday, we will be honing our football skills ready for a Christmas Truce match! Our class book this term is by the amazing author Michael Morpurgo. We will be reading more of his stories and finding out about his life as an author and the way he writes.

Groundforce

On Saturday 13th Oct at 10am we are asking parents and carers to join us for a 'Groundforce' morning. We would like to tidy up our flower beds, prepare our planters so the children can plant bulbs and carry out other Autumnal jobs. If you can spare a few hours it would be every much appreciated. Tea , coffee and biscuits will be provided. Please spread the word and extend the welcome to other family members.

Parents evenings will be week held commencing the 8th October.

Next week, class teachers will have a list of time slots available for you to sign up for an appointment.

PE Kits

Please ensure that all items in PE kits are named & in school at all times .
