(How we use pupil information)

Chantry Community Primary School processes personal information about its pupils and is a 'data controller' for the purposes of Data Protection legislation. We collect information from you and may receive information about your child from their previous school.

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Monitoring information (such as assessment information and exclusions / behavioural information)
- Health and wellbeing information (such as medical or dietary details and special educational needs information)
- Safeguarding information (such as records of incidents / concerns / conversation logs / action logs / records of outside agency involvement)
- Images and video (such as CCTV or photographs)

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to keep children safe (food allergies, or emergency contact details)
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We only collect and use pupils' personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where:

- We have to collect and process personal data to enable us to comply with a legal obligation (GDPR Article 6.1c).

- We need it because we are acting in the public interest or exercising our official authority (GDPR Article 6.1e).

We may also process pupils' personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent from you to use it in a certain way (GDPR Article 6.1a).
- We have a genuine and legitimate reason and we are not harming any of your rights and interests (GDPR Article 6.1f).
- It is necessary to protect vital interests (GDPR Article 6.1d).

We may also process pupils' personal data in order to lawfully process 'special category' data situations where:

- the data subject has given explicit consent (GDPR Article 9.2a)
- substantial vital interests (GDPR Article 9.2c)
- processing is necessary for the establishment of legal claims (GDPR Article 9.2f)
- substantial public interest (GDPR Article 9.2g)

Where we have obtained consent to use pupils' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using pupils' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

We do not process the data in any way that involves any automated decision making, including profiling.

Collecting pupil information

We collect pupil information via pupil admission forms or via Common Transfer File (CTF) from a previous school and yearly data collection form checks.

We may also collect data from you via Free School Meal application forms, signing in/out log, trip and club permission slips, medicine consent forms, withdrawal from learning forms, individual risk assessments.

Data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

Information is stored in a variety of ways including paper and electronic file for the retention periods as per the School Retention Schedule. Data is stored securely and only assessed by authorised individuals. Data will be securely destroyed at the end of the relevant retention period.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupils attend after leaving us

- our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- School Nursing Team
- Data Processors as part of the pupil's educational requirement (such as SIMS, Parentpay, Timetables Rockstars etc.)

Why we regularly share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our pupils with the Department for Education (DfE) either directly or via our local authority for the purpose of those data collections.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

How Government uses your data

The pupil data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- underpins school funding, which is calculated based upon the numbers of children and their characteristics in each school.
- informs 'short term' education policy monitoring and school accountability and intervention (for example, school GCSE results or Pupil Progress measures).

- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy (for example how certain subject choices go on to affect education or earnings beyond school)
