

How do we promote British Values at Northgate?

At Northgate, we actively promote positive, inclusive values. We recognise the multicultural, multi-faith nature of the United Kingdom and understand the crucial role our school play in promoting these values to prepare our pupils positively for life in modern Britain.

Our ethos reflects these values. We place great emphasis on building positive relationships in school, amongst the students themselves and between staff and students. We strongly believe students should not merely be taught such values but that they are embedded into school life and how we do things.

We strive to support our students to develop into confident, happy, successful young people who have empathy, tolerance, and contribute positively to the community.

The information below reflects how we work to promote positive values through the ethos and life of the school, for example through a broad and balanced curriculum, through social, moral, cultural and spiritual development and our assembly themes.

If you require additional information about promoting British values and preventing extremism/radicalisation, please explore the following link which has a section specifically for parents: <http://www.educateagainsthate.com/>

