Reading Challenge 2020

What do you like to do in your spare time?

- I love to read.
- I read 14 books over the Summer holidays
- I read 2 last half term
- I can still remember reading my way through lots of Enid Blyton series when I was really young
- My Mum says I always took a book with me wherever I went – even to my Grandma’s for tea.
- This is not true
- I always took 2 in case I finished the first one 😊

What is/are your favourite book/s?

- I loved 'Each, Peach Pear Plum' when I was very young.
- I really liked the rhyming in the book as well as all the familiar characters and having to spot everyone in the illustrations.
- Watch and Listen to Each, Peach, Pear Plum t by clicking here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=M5ePAGRCeSE>
- My favourite author is Michael Morpurgo and I particularly enjoyed reading 'Kaspar Prince of Cats', 'Kensuke's Kingdom', 'The Amazing Story of Adolphus Tips', 'I believe in Unicorns', 'The Butterfly Lion', there are far too many to mention.... If you haven't read any of his books yet you must give on of these a try!

Do you have a book you have read more than once?

- I have no idea how many times I have read 'Each Peach, Pear, Plum', but it was lots.
- I have read the Harry Potter series several times
- I have read the Narnia series many times
- And many others...

My challenge to you...

- You will find a reading challenge sheet on the webpage for you to try to complete:
 - It is suitable for everyone as you can all answer appropriately to your age
 - Read/Listen to as many books as you can, that you have at home, between now and when you come back to school
 - You can use ANY book
 - You can even listen to free audio books, or listen to authors reading their books (I will post some links for these too)
 - You just need to fill it in and enjoy the activities
 - There will be some prizes when we go back to school
- Have fun! 😊 I'm looking forward to seeing all your completed challenge sheets
