RCM, Truro Visit - Years 4 and 5

Year 5 had a fantastic day on Monday 26th November, visiting Truro. The children walked from the Royal Cornwall Museum to the Cathedral to look at the architecture and evidence that they were in a city. They then completed a walk out of Truro, following the river, looking at how the landscape changed. We walked back into town and had lunch in the museum.

The children took part in a Tudor workshop where they recreated An Gof's march to London to complain about taxes during Henry VII's reign.

They also dressed as a rich Tudor man and woman and found putting on all the different layers was tricky - no wonder they had servants to help them! Here is a quote from Year 4. They took part in a workshop on Egyptians:

It was fun as there were lots of activities - we got to see a real mummy and look in sand.
Mia Stocks, John Buckland
