SCHOOL NEWS AND VIEWS

The Travelling Book Fair has been a success with a wide selection of books on offer. The children and their parents have enjoyed looking through the exciting books and then taking their favourite ones home. By supporting the Travelling Book Fair you have helped the school to earn rewards that we will be able to spend on books and resources for the classrooms and library.

PARKING AND ROAD SAFETY

We would like to politely ask parents and family members to be mindful of residents' private drives and 'no parking' signs when collecting and dropping children off for school, both at the beginning and end of the school day. We have had a few residents recently contacting the School to complain about this issue.

It has also been brought to our attention that some parents drive and park on the pavements causing a blockage of the pavement. This obstruction then results in parents and children being forced to walk into the road. As you will surely agree this is a serious safety hazard for the children as well as the parents collecting them from school and it is not acceptable.

Thank you for your cooperation.

MATHS SURVEY

Thank you to all the parents who have taken the time to fill in the maths homework questionnaire. We will be using this information to tailor the homework exercises we give and the support we provide in the future.

After a successful times table workshop with the parents in 3LH, we have detailed some ways that you can support your child in learning their times table on our school website under the parent heading. We are hoping to roll out more workshops in the future.

Music Week

During this week, Upper School have been tuning their tubas and stringing their sitars ready for another week of composition, creating musical accompaniment to a scene from their Power of Reading text. I have loved being interrupted during break times to tune ukuleles and guitars that the children have enthusiastically brought to me, poised to create their next masterpiece. The biggest addition this year has been the use of the brand new recording microphone that was bought using the money from selling the Christmas CDs, which has meant the teachers have recorded the groups' pieces and I have been overwhelmed by the quality I have heard so far.

Next week is Lower School's turn and I am looking forward to hearing more fantastic compositions!

Mr Ferguson
