

ARTICLE IN PE MATTERS MAGAZINE

Mrs Gouge has written a two page article which will be published in the next issue of PE Matters magazine. We are very pleased that the good practices the school undertakes are being highlighted in this way and hope it will encourage others. A copy of the article has been sent home and is also available on the website.

EASTER NON-UNIFORM DAY

On Friday 29th March we will be having a non-uniform day and asking children to bring in an Easter treat for the raffle to be held at the Easter Assembly.

RED NOSE DAY FRIDAY 15TH MARCH

The whole school was rocking today for Red Nose Day. The children looked fantastic and KS2 were all awarded with their TT Rockstar certificates. We made £107 which will be sent off to Comic Relief on Monday.

THE VERY HUNGRY CATERPILLAR

On Tuesday Sue from Chartwells came in to help Dewey Class make art with food and healthy tortilla wraps which they then all enjoyed eating! Photos are on the website.

THE STORY OF ST NEOT

On Monday local historians Nick Hart, Martin Eddy and Chris Timms came in to tell us the legend of St Neot and the three fishes. The children were enthralled and had the opportunity to ask questions afterwards.

MOTHERING SUNDAY SERVICE AT ST NEOT CHURCH

On Sunday 31st March at 11.00am there will be a special Mothering Sunday service in the Church. The vicar has asked if any of our children would like to read a poem during the service. If your child would be interested please speak to Mrs Bowden, thank you.

PRESENTATION OF WORK

We are currently focusing on the presentation of children's work. Can we ask that you check your child's homework to make sure it is neat and tidy? We thank you for your help in working in partnership with the school.

CROSS COUNTRY

Over 60 children took part in the Landrake 3 mile cross country last week in very muddy conditions. Sam P-R came 58th. Samuel R 63rd, Jake 87th, Ben 142nd, William 270th, Neave 273rd, Kerenza 274th, Bea 340th and Amy 397th.
