Year 3 Egyptian Day

Year 3 had great fun this week during their Ancient Egyptian Day. They were some fantastic costumes including mummies, pharaohs, queens and even a few Egyptologists! The children learnt how to make their own cartouches, play Senet (a game played by pharaohs no less) and even attempted building their own pyramids! They also welcomed card game maker and university lecturer, David Gumbrell, who introduced them to the game "Lost my Mummy".

PTA News

Due to building work and access regrettably there will not be a PTA Christmas Fair this year. We are however looking forward to hosting a refreshment stand at the Godalming Christmas Festival on the 24th November where we will be selling teas, coffees and a wonderful selection of homemade cakes at the Wilfrid Noyce Centre between 10am and 4pm. With a large attendance expected we are excited at the opportunity to raise substantial funds for the school. If you would like to contribute to the cause and bake a cake, mince pies, cookies etc please contact Simon Parry at simoncrparry1970@gmail.com.
