Dear parent/carers,

As an Artsmark school, we'd like to share with you an exciting opportunity that Curious Minds and Culture Warrington are delivering this summer.

As part of the government funded HAF programme, children in receipt of benefits-related free school meals can take part in 4 weeks of creative activity at Pyramid Arts Centre for free. Working with professional artists and exploring dance and drama, sculpture, film-making and so much more, children will learn new skills, meet new friends and have a lot of creative fun.

To find out more about the HAF programme locally visit and to book directly for this activity, click here:

Kind regards,

Mrs Jayne Narraway
