A big WELL DONE to the 70% of children who made it in through the snow to school today! They've had a brilliant time in the playground! Check out the photos on the website here. Well done to the children, too, for being so calm and sensible around the school, in spite of all the excitement!

And big thanks to the staff... Every teacher and teaching assistant came in to work today, from all over Bristol and beyond.

That's true Hillcrest resilience right there!

Diary Date - The next Friends meeting will be at 8pm on 14th February. Very romantic! More details and venue to follow.

That's all for today folks!

Have fun in the snow / stay warm!

Look out for your next Mailbag on Tuesday.
