

Royal Institute of British Architects: National Schools Programme

This term, your child is taking part in the Royal Institute of British Architects' National Schools Programme.

The Architecture Ambassador Partnership: An architect will be coming into school to run an architecture project for your child's class.

Film and Photography Permission

The Royal Institute of British Architects would like to ask permission for both themselves and their partner, Architecture Ambassadors, to take and reproduce film, audio recordings and photographs of the group – which could include your child - during their participation in the RIBA Architecture Schools Programme. These would potentially be used on the following platforms for both the RIBA and Architecture Ambassador:

- Website(s)
- Social media
- Educational resources
- Marketing and publicity materials
- Local and national press
- Corporate presentations
- Publications

If you give consent for photographs/films to be taken and reproduced in the above ways, please tick the box and complete the form below, and return it to your child's teacher.

---

I give consent for photographs, film or audio recordings to be taken of my child during these activities, and to be reproduced in the ways described above. I grant this permission on behalf of my child, without restriction, and on an unpaid basis.
