

News 27th November 2018

Click here for an important reminder for all parents.

Wells Road crossing - Paul Whitmell, the Lollypop Man, is still poorly so the crossing won't be manned for the rest of this week. Look out for an update in Friday's Mailbag.

Christmas Trees for Sale! Support the school by buying your tree from Friends of Hillcrest. Top quality Nordmann Fir trees, sourced locally in Somerset and available from 7th December, either to collect from school or, for a small fee, delivered to your door. Please click here for the order form.

Friends Festive Film Night - Friday 7th December. Two screenings, 5pm & 7pm. Adults £3, children £2, including popcorn. Children must be accompanied by an adult. See flyer below.

Pining for the Bake Off? Don't worry... Hillcrest's very own Christmas Bake Off is coming soon! Start planning your festive bakes to bring in on Friday 14th December. Winners will be announced in Assembly and the cakes will be on sale at the Christmas Fair on the Saturday.

Dress Down Day, Friday 7th December - No need to wear school uniform! Just bring in a Tombola prize for the Christmas Fair. It can be something for adults or children, eg. wine, beer, chocolate, toiletries, toys, cuddlies and games (new or as new) etc. School Road Gate - Please note that, from this Thursday, the back gate will be locked at 3.45pm instead of 4.00pm.

Back to black - Just a reminder that children should be wearing black school skirts or trousers (not joggers please) and black shoes. Trainers are fine as long as they are mainly black.

Letters

Festive Film Night flyer

Christmas Tree order form

Community Notices

A good cause - On Friday 30th November, Hillcrest parent Emelye Chanot, is running a Craft Evening for grown-ups, to raise funds for the Wild Goose Café in Easton, a centre for the homeless. See flyer. She's also inviting parents to bring their children along to the Jarman Hall on Sydenham Road beforehand, between 3.40 and 4.40, to celebrate the beginning of Advent by making a decoration. There will be a drink and a biscuit too! Cost £2.