94 surveys returned

Questions 8, 9 and 11 ** parents/carers felt they couldn’t comment because they were not aware of any issues and their children had not experienced any problems and so ticked ‘Neither agree or disagree’

Parents/carers felt that the school had worked hard to improve:

- Communication and in particular the formation of the parent forum and the weekly newsletters
- Providing children with more homework ‘which is really good’

Parents/carers also commented on:

- Recent maths workshops being very helpful
- School listening well to parents and teachers being very open
- Their children talking about the FIDES values at home which show they understand the culture of the school
- School improving over the last year
- The effort the teaching team go to ‘It’s phenomenal – always creating memories
