Better Never Stops

12th February 2021

Dear Parents & Carers,

I hope this finds you all safe and well – and warm!

Congratulations to you all on making it through a particularly challenging term. It has been incredibly hard going for everyone and we very much hope to see you all back at school very soon – hopefully in just a few weeks' time.

Diary Dates:

Monday 22nd February: Start of Term 4 - Critical Worker and Vulnerable pupils return to school; Home Learning re-starts for those not able to attend

Wednesday 24th: Forest School – Turtles (11.00am-12.00pm); Starfish (1.30pm-2.30pm)

Thursday 25th: Forest School – Whales (11.00am-12.00pm); Orcas (1.30pm-2.30pm)

Wednesday 3rd March: Forest School – Jellyfish (11.00am-12.00pm); Dolphins (1.30pm-2.30pm)

Thursday 4th: Forest School – Sea Horses (11.00am-12.00pm); Penguins (1.30pm-2.30pm)

Half-Term

The school will be closed to all pupils over half-term, including critical worker and vulnerable children. Face-to-face teaching and Home Learning will re-start on Monday 22nd February.

If you require any further information, or any form of support, please contact the school office.

I hope you are all able to enjoy half-term.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Guy Walsh
Headteacher
