

Houses and Homes Homework Grid

Create a floor plan of your home and label the rooms.

1 Dojo

House number hunt. Have a walk along your street and note down the numbers. What patterns do you notice?

1 Dojo

Write a descriptive paragraph about your dream room.

Remember capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.

3 Dojos

Research three different types of houses around the world e.g; igloo, yurt, adobe house etc...

Draw pictures and label materials.

2 Dojos

Design your dream room. What would you have inside? Draw, colour and label the contents.

1 Dojo

Have a look outside your house. Draw and label all of the 2d shapes you can see.

1 Dojo

Write your own version of the Three Little Pigs, changing the characters and materials.

3 Dojos

Draw your route from home to school, using directional language.

3 Dojos.

Have a go at an observational sketch of the outside of your house.

2 Dojos

Create a pictogram to show all of the different types of houses in your road e.g detached, bungalow, flats etc...

2 Dojos

Imagine you are an estate agent, selling the house made of bricks for the little pig. Write an advert to sell their home.

2 Dojos

Create a poster on 'how to stay safe in our homes'.

2 Dojos

Explore the different textures of your house and create some rubbings of them. Label them afterwards.

1 Dojo

Collect information and make a chart about the contents of your house e.g; How many windows, doors, toilets, sinks, beds...

2 Dojos

Research Victorian kitchens. Draw a picture of a Victorian kitchen and a modern kitchen and write a few sentences to explain their differences.

3 Dojos

Research how to build a house and write a simple set of instructions using a time connective to start each sentence e.g; first, next etc...

3 Dojos

Here is your Autumn Term homework Grid. Have a go at completing at least 3 activities, but please do more if you feel you can! Each activity is worth a certain number of Dojos. Please bring your completed activities by Thursday 26th November for a sharing morning.