

Waves of Support for SEN/D

Children may move backwards and forwards through the waves

*APDR or "Assess, Plan, Do Review" are co-written by teachers, parents and children (where appropriate). The targets are SMART: sensible, measureable, achievable, realistic and time aware. They are reviewed at least once per term (approximately November, February and June).

**When previous interventions have had little or no impact

*** 2 APDR cycles are required prior to this point
