Dear Parents and Carers

Appointment of Interim Headteacher

You will have seen Mrs Watts' letter of 1st March, explaining that Mr Smith is unwell and will not be returning to school this month. I know that you will join me in wishing Mr Smith well; we are all looking forward to seeing him back in school.

Meanwhile, the Local Authority and Interim Executive Board has decided that it would be appropriate to appoint an Interim Headteacher to join the school in Mr Smith's absence. This is no reflection on Mrs Watts, who has worked so hard to ensure stability and continuity – but we must ensure that she is properly supported in her role. With that in mind, I am delighted to tell you that Robert Campbell, Chief Executive Officer of the Morris Education Trust, has today joined us as Interim Headteacher.

Mr Campbell was originally an English teacher. In 2007, he became Principal of Impington Village College (IVC) and its Executive Principal in January 2016, before being appointed as CEO of the Morris Education Trust that October. He is a National Leader of Education, in recognition of his impact at IVC and in work supporting other schools, including several primary schools.

I know that Mr Campbell is really excited about this role. He lives locally and is very much looking forward to working with children, staff and parents.

Yours sincerely

Dr Chris Marshall
Chair of Interim Executive Board
