

Home learning tasks- guide for grown ups- 5.6.20

Please DO NOT feel like you have to do all of these tasks every day. Some days you might do all of them and some days you may not do any. These are just some ideas to keep you going for when your child ready and happy to learn.

Please do post your child's work on Tapestry. We can comment on your child's work and give them feedback. It's a great way for us to interact with each other. If you have forgotten your password/ need help logging in, please contact us via email through Mrs Wooler at head@westernroad.e-sussex.sch.uk

Reading/Writing/ Phonics

Read 'Steven Seagull: Action Hero' by Elys Dolan with your child. If you do not have a copy, then here is a version read aloud on You Tube.

After the drama activity from yesterday, maybe you could write a letter to your child from the guilty culprit who stole something from your house? Help them read the letter. Attached you will find an example that you could adapt. Highlighted are 'tricky words' that cannot be blended together. Can your child remember what these words are?

Phonics

Have a go at one or two of the phonics activity mats attached.

Continue to get your child to read with you as much as possible. You can create an account on the Oxford Owl website and access lots of free ebooks. We would have been reading book bands 1,2,3 mostly at school. <https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/books/free-ebooks/>

Maths

Look at the link above and do 1 activity per day from summer term week 6. This week's activities are about The Snail and the Whale by Julia Donaldson. If you don't have a copy, here is a version from You Tube.

Understanding the world/ Expressive Art and design/ Communication and Language

Make a paper plate seagull! Can you add some details to make your seagull look like Steve?
Could you add a Police Officer hat or some handcuffs?
