

LITERACY

WALT – WRITE THE END OF A STORY

Starter: Prefixes. Can you think of some words to put in the box?

Prefixes

Prefixes go at the beginning of words. This changes the meaning of the word.

prefix	meaning	example	Write down 3 more examples of words with this prefix
re	to do again	r eturn
bi	two	b icycle
dis	not	d islike
mis	wrong	m isbehave

Today you are going to write the end of your adventure dream story!

Have a look at your plans from last week. Your ending will be your character waking up.

1. What will make your character need to go home?
2. How will your character feel when they wake up?
3. What would have happened while they were sleeping?
E.g will they wake up the same or have been moved to bed?

Example:

Penny was now having a wonderful time with Tom in the jungle but could see Tom was feeling unhappy. “What’s wrong?” Penny asked. He looked at her and then looked up at the darkening sky. “It’s getting late.” He said. “It will start getting too dangerous for you to be here! I am alright because I am big and scary but the other dinosaurs will take one look at you and think you are dinner.” Penny knew her friend was right and that it was time for her to go. She sighed and nodded her head. They both got up and started walking to the where Penny had first woken up. When they got there they gave each other the biggest of hugs! Penny had to fight back her tears as she didn’t want Tom to see her upset.

Penny then laid on the floor and began to yawn. It had been a very long day playing and exploring the jungle. Tom laid around her so no other dinosaurs would see her while she slept. She drifted off and then was woken again by the same words she heard every morning. “Good morning Penny!” It was her mum.

Penny sat up and realised she was in her bed in her bedroom in her house! She smiled that everything was back to normal as the jungle was getting a little cold and dark. Tom was laying in the bed right next to her like he had been in the jungle! “You can go back out and explore the jungle after school today” said mum remembering Penny didn’t get time yesterday. “That’s ok thanks mum, I have had enough of the jungle” she smiled at Tom thinking back to her long night. Her mum was confused but then her sister came rushing in to the room and they started getting ready for school.

Can you write the end of your story in your writing book?

Try to answer the questions and use as many adjectives as you can.

CHALLENGE: Can you use a word with a prefix in your work?