

Let's say that we're in a very old castle from hundreds of years ago. The castle has been abandoned and people haven't been inside for hundreds of years. But recently the people in the town have heard strange noises coming from the castle grounds so we're going to go and look.

We get into the castle and we can hear a noise...it sounds a little like it's a breathing noise... so we go down a set of ancient steps and follow the noise. It takes us right down into the ground underneath the castle itself into an underground section, maybe it used to be a dungeon. And then we find out what the noise is...

Inside the dungeon there's a very small, old looking dragon. If we look closely, we can see the dragon is chained to the walls and it looks pained. As we get closer, we can see a sign next to the dragon.

The sign says: Danger. This is the very last dragon in the country. Do not touch. It must not be set free.
