

Home learning tasks- guide for grown ups- 4.6.20

Please DO NOT feel like you have to do all of these tasks every day. Some days you might do all of them and some days you may not do any. These are just some ideas to keep you going for when your child ready and happy to learn.

Please do post your child's work on Tapestry. We can comment on your child's work and give them feedback. It's a great way for us to interact with each other. If you have forgotten your password/ need help logging in, please contact us via email through Mrs Wooler at head@westernroad.e-sussex.sch.uk

Reading/Writing/ Phonics

Read 'Steven Seagull: Action Hero' by Elys Dolan with your child. If you do not have a copy, then here is a version read aloud on You Tube.

Grown ups- can you stage a crime for your child to solve? Maybe someone stole all the ice creams out of the freezer? Maybe you could leave some clues/ have someone be an eye witness? Could you design a wanted poster to help catch the thief? Maybe you could stick one to a tree when you go out for your walk?

Phonics

Have a go at one or two of the phonics activity mats attached. Do a few today and a few tomorrow.

Continue to get your child to read with you as much as possible. You can create an account on the Oxford Owl website and access lots of free ebooks. We would have been reading book bands 1,2,3 mostly at school. <https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/books/free-ebooks/>

Maths

Look at the link above and do 1 activity per day from summer term week 6. This week's activities are about The Snail and the Whale by Julia Donaldson. If you don't have a copy, here is a version from You Tube.

Understanding the world/ Expressive Art and design/ Communication and Language

If you are choosing to send your child to school next week, it is important that you talk with them about how school life may be different and how we may have some new rules and ways of learning. You could share this short video with your children.

Can you think of a way to say hello to your friends and teachers without touching them?

Even if your child is not coming to school, you could still use this video to remind them of how they must behave if they run into people they know whilst on a walk.
