

Making and decorating clay bog babies. Considering the features of bog babies.

art

Watercolour bog baby art work and diagrams

art

Looking at animals and their habitats and creating a bog baby habitat

Walk around the local area looking at habitats and collecting items for the habitat

sci geo

Naming plants and trees found in the local area and in bog baby habitats

Using the local area to name plants and trees.

sci

SMSC LL

Beginning to categories animals: birds, mammals, fish, reptiles, amphibians. Deciding which a bog baby is.

Looking for different categories of animals outside especially bird spotting

sci

The Society for the Protection of Bog Babies

LOtC opportunities are in green Writing opportunities throughout

Caring for the bog babies and their habitats. Educating people about bog babies.

SMSC

Creating maps of the woodlands including key geographical features

geo

LL

Learning about carnivores, herbivores and omnivores and considering which one a bog baby is scie

How the woodland habitat changes through autumn and winter.

Visiting local woodlands over time to observe changes through the seasons.

sci geo

LL

Using junk modelling techniques to create cameras to record the bog babies

Learning about camouflage using the outdoors. Using outdoor materials to camouflage the cameras

D.T. art

Recording 'footage' of bog babies using stop-motion animation

Using the outdoors as a backgroup to our films

comp

Considering transport in the local area and the benefits of a new railway line

Going on a walk to spot different sorts of transport

geo

SMSC LL