|------------------------------------|--|
| Reading for Pleasure | Read as much and as often as you can, also, get your grown up to read you lots of stories. |
| Online Reading | Oxford Owls has many E-Books to enjoy. Twinkl phonics is excellent for consolidating everything learned so far in Letters and Sounds |
| Writing | Practise name writing every day. Also all letter and number formation. Some of us are writing simple CVC words. Some of us our writing captions and some of us are writing simple sentences. The Literacy Company has some home learning packs which are currently free online. |
| Phonics | Phoneme Pop is a great online game to consolidate all sounds learned so far in Letters and Sounds. Twinkl Phonics is a great online resource as mentioned above. Some other good sites for phonics games are Phonics Bloom, Epic Phonics, Letters and Sounds and Phonicsplay. If you still have your phonics pack given out last term, use it daily. |
| Maths | Try to practise counting every day. We are working on numbers to 50 at the moment. Also, be secure in recognising all numbers to 20 and be able to order them. Investigate shape number and pattern. Try some simple addition to 10 and beyond. The site Topmarks has counting games the children are all familiar with. Sheppard software has some fun maths games too. White Rose Maths resources are currently free online. |
| Topic Work | Our current topic is Fairy tales, so enjoy as many as you can! A great site to watch animations in Oxbridge Baby, I usually access this through Youtube. We have been looking for signs of Springtime and growth. Could you make an Easter Garden while learning about the Easter story? |
