Dear Parents/Carers,

Re. Invitation to participate in our second STEM week 12th-16th March 2018

We want to build on the success of our STEM week last year which involved parents, friends and family members who work in the professional areas of Science, Technology, Engineering or Maths volunteering to speak to our pupils about their careers. The children were interested, amazed and inspired by the information and interactive activities planned by visitors to classes.

We hope to replicate the week by inviting parents to come into classes again and talk about their STEM related jobs. We will also be organising some challenges in school such as: building a flotation device for an action figure, making pasta bridges, and possibly an egg drop project (create a safety case to protect an egg when dropped).

It will also be British Science Week (9th-18th March 2018) so we are hoping to make the week a fun packed week of amazing Science. That's why we are letting you know the date, well in advance, to try and secure a place in your busy diaries for the week 12th to 16th March 2018. Please pass on our invitation to friends and relatives who may also be able to support and inspire the pupils of Newton Longville School. If you are interested, and able, to take part in our STEM week please put the date in your diary and complete the attached reply slip. Please return to me by the end of this term, Tuesday 19th December 2017.

We all look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,

Mrs Dudley.
Science & ICT Leader.
