James Richard Ellroy is starting a new year, expecting nothing more to happen after last year's adventures. Little does he know, however, that Mrs Graham has more planned than before.

He must fix the LIZx35 – an ancient machine of travels – and join alliances with a rebellious group trying to stop a figure known to many as the Duchess.

Then an unexpected turn of events puts James in danger, and he is faced with his rival once again. How will he stop her once more, without the safety of the school nearby?

Gabriela Goncalves was born in Brazil, but has lived most of her life in England. She considers writing a passion, and loves reading and learning. She is about to start secondary school, which she is looking forward to very much. She will miss her primary school, though, and will always remember all she has learnt with her friends and classmates.
