Autumn Term Issue 05

Dear Parent/Carer

I hope you are well. Next week sees us launch into parent consultation week. As you know, we are trying a completely new system and as it is all IT based, we are also expecting the odd hiccup along the way. Please bear with us if there are any teething issues, and rest assured we will make things work one way or another. I will say that the teachers are really excited to get the opportunity to speak to you; to share the incredible learning that has been taking place these past few weeks. The children have achieved so much and have made great progress since returning and we are gearing up and making plans, ready for next half term's learning. Yes, scarily, there are now only two weeks until half term. Time really does fly here at school.

COVID 19: No real updates to give you this week. PHE Cornwall, wrote to all schools last week asking us to revisit and tweak our procedures due to the continued large numbers of positive cases in schools. Thankfully, all of the recommendations that they suggested, we were already doing. Such as limiting contact, no indoor whole school assemblies, regular cleaning and staff wearing face masks. I hope this gives you some reassurance as to how committed we are to keeping our school open, and of course to keeping everyone safe.

Other news: KS1 playground. As soon as the builders have left our site I hope to spend some money on resources and activities for the KS1 children's playground. It is in need of a revamp, so please watch this space.

Sadly, we have to cut down several of our ash trees. These trees have been affected by Ash Dieback Disease. We had a tree surgeon on site this week who has identified 5 - 7 trees that may have to be felled. We are, all of course devastated by this news, but are working on a plan to replant at least two trees for everyone we have to fell. Our lovely natural environment is a wonderful blessing and I will do my utmost to keep it intact so that the children and nature can coexist as one.

That is all the news from me this week. I hope you have a lovely weekend and we look forward to speaking to you all next week at parent consultations.

Take care
Kieran Walsh
