Spring Term Issue 1

Happy New Year! I hope you all enjoyed the Christmas break and are ready for the new term. Despite being a short term, it looks to be another busy one.

We've started the year with a new addition to our staff team. Mr Anderson will be teaching in Y2 on Thursdays and Fridays and I'm sure you will join me in welcoming him to our school community.

As you will be aware, our clubs start next week, which many of you have signed up for.

By signing up, you are showing that you are committed to attending each week, unless you are absent from school. Obviously, there may be the odd occasion when your child is in school but they are unable to attend the club.

In this instance, and for your child's safety, please can I ask that you, or your child, let the club leader know if they are unable to attend a club on that day. Sometimes a child doesn't appear at a club after school despite being in school during the day. This can lead to concern about the child's whereabouts, which obviously needs checking, and can delay the start of the club for other children. We'd really appreciate your cooperation with this, thank you.

Next Tuesday, 16th January, is our first FOLS meeting of the term. We will meet at 2.45; please sign in at the office. All parents are welcome to come and share their ideas for fundraising throughout the year. Our Christmas Fayre was an amazing success and we'd like to build on that to create more opportunities for your children to enjoy.

THE ANGELS OF FORE STREET

A community play made by Pipeline Theatre with people from Camborne and Redruth.

Livvy and her parents aren't from round here. They're on their way home to London when disaster strikes, their dog runs away, and they are stranded in Cornwall on Christmas Eve. But help is never far away in a town like this, and despite everything they end up having the best Christmas EVER!

This heartwarming, edgy and funny seasonal tale is a timely reminder that there is more that unites us than divides us.
