

Woodfield News

Friday 8th February 2019

Dear Parents,

We have had another lovely week here at Woodfield and luckily the snow didn't stay for long!

All of our children enjoyed the extended learning together this month. We are very lucky to have such supporting families within Woodfield, it really does make a difference.

Don't forget to follow our Facebook page for up to date information and photos of exciting things that have been happening in school.

Next week is our last week before half term. I hope you all have a restful break. Next term will be busy as ever. Look out for mid term progress reports that are due to go out after the holiday. We will also be having parents evenings to give you the opportunity to discuss your child's learning and look at their books.

As always, don't forget that either myself or Miss Saunders, are always available if you have any questions or queries.

Have a lovely weekend,

Ciara Moran

Executive Headteacher

Internet Safety

This week was Internet Safety Day. All children have done work on this in classes this week, but if you would like to learn more as to how you can keep your child safe online whilst at home here are some links that you may find useful:

DAY

Thursday 7th March 2019 is World Book Day. The theme this year is "Share a Story".

The children can come to school dressed as their favourite book or film character (or anything they want - be imaginative!)

Don't forget Friday 15th February the school is closed to all pupils.

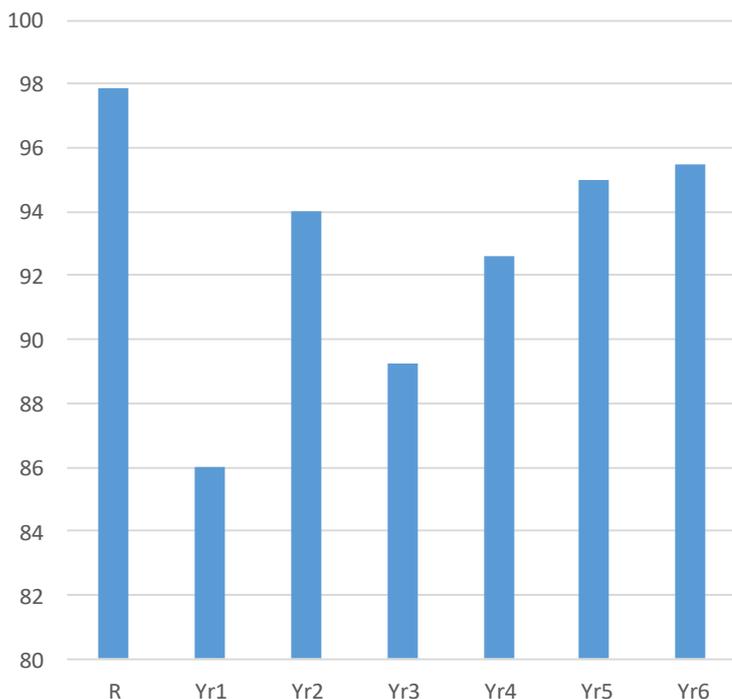

The last day of term for children is Thursday 14th February

Foundation & Year 6 - Height & Weight

The School Nursing Team were here on Friday 8th February to take the height measurements and weight for Year 6's and Foundation. Unless your child opted out at the time, you will receive all the results shortly.
