

Bledlow Ridge School

Accessibility Plan

April 2017 (3 year plan)

Introduction

On 1 October 2010, the Equality Act 2010 replaced all existing equality legislation such as the Race Relations Act, Disability Discrimination Act and Sex Discrimination Act. It has consolidated this legislation and also provides some changes that schools need to be aware of.

Key points

The Equality Act 2010 provides a single, consolidated source of discrimination law. It simplifies the law and it extends protection from discrimination in some areas.

For the most part, the effect of the new law is the same as it has been in the past – meaning that school s/academies cannot unlawfully discriminate against pupils because of their sex, race, disability, religion or belief or sexual orientation.

The exceptions to the discrimination provisions for schools are all replicated in the new act – such as the content of the curriculum, collective worship and admissions to single sex schools and schools of a religious character.

Bledlow Ridge School is committed to equality of opportunities in all aspects of our provision.

Special provisions for Disability under the Equality Act 2010

The law on disability discrimination is different from the rest of the Equality Act in a number of ways. In particular, it works in only one direction – that is to say, it protects disabled people but not people who are not disabled. This means that schools are allowed to treat disabled pupils more favourably than non-disabled pupils, and in some cases are required to do so, by making reasonable adjustments to put them on a more level footing with pupils without disabilities. The definition of what constitutes discrimination is more complex. Provision for disabled pupils is closely connected with the regime for children with special educational needs.

Principles

At Bledlow Ridge School we believe that all children are entitled to equal access to learning in accordance with their need regardless of race, sex, creed, religion, sexual orientation, disability or age.

Our school vision demonstrates our commitment to helping our pupils achieve their potential and to tackle barriers that can oppose this. Bledlow Ridge School has high ambitions for its disabled pupils and expects them to participate and achieve in every aspect of school life. The school:

- sets suitable learning challenges;
- responds to pupils' diverse needs;
- overcomes potential barriers to learning and assessment for individuals and groups of pupils;
- aims to identify and remove barriers for disabled pupils in every area of school life

Information from pupil data and school audit

The presence of any disabled pupils in the school and the patterns of their participation in the life of the school are detailed in the SEND register and the individual one page profile (if applicable).

The main priorities in the school's plan

Bledlow Ridge School has a duty to set out a plan that identifies actions aimed to increase access to education for disabled pupils in these areas of planning:

- Increase the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the school curriculum
- Improve the environment of the school to increase the extent to which disabled pupils can take advantage of education and associated services
- Improving the delivery to disabled pupils of information which is provided in writing for pupils who are not disabled

Management, implementation and publication

The accessibility plan supports and is supported by other school policies:

- School Improvement Plan
- SEND policy

- Equality policy
- Health and Safety Policy

The Accessibility plan will be reviewed and revised every 3 years by the SLT and the Governing Body. These reviews will use children’s individual access plans that are encompassed in ECHPs (where applicable), data monitoring information and the priorities in the school Improvement Plan.

The Accessibility plan will be available to all children, staff, and parents to contribute to the review process at any time.

The Accessibility plan is published on the school website and can be available as a paper copy from the school office.
