Dear Parents and Carers,

PTA News

Welcome back for the summer term! We hope you all had a lovely Easter break.

The PTA has its first meeting of the new term next Monday (29 April), where we'll start planning the summer's activities. It starts at 7 pm at school and everyone is welcome to attend.

We're excited to be welcoming the travelling book fair back into school next week (1–3 May). Please do come along on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday to browse and maybe buy a new book or two. Every sale also helps the PTA raise more funds for school.

Diary dates

- PTA meeting: Monday, 29 April at 7 pm
- Travelling book fair: Wednesday 1st, Thursday 2nd and Friday 3rd May, straight after school

Dale Chihuly Sculpture

You may have seen our wonderful, Dale Chihuly inspired sculptures at the front of school. Mrs Flinders wrote about this in the previous newsletter and over the Easter break she worked hard to construct it. I am sure you will agree that they look fantastic.

Smartboards

Years 3, 4 and 5 have had new CleverTouch boards installed. They are absolutely fabulous and the children have had a good time interacting with them this week. We continue to work on the technological side of school to enhance learning.

Key Stage 1 Football

Children in Key Stage 1 are now able to play football on their field at lunchtimes, kindly refereed by a Year 6 child. If the children would like to bring in a change of shoes for football they are welcome to, although this is not essential. A change of clothes is also not needed.

Twitter Winner!

Over the Easter holidays we managed to get to our 100 follower target on Twitter!

The randomly picked winning follower who can come and collect a prize (box of chocolates) from school next week is: Mrs Cheetham. Well done!

Parent Survey Feedback

Thank you to those of you who completed the parent survey, we got 125 responses in total which have given us clear evidence for where we need to improve. We are still very much a school on a journey but I believe that we have come so far in the last 2 years. We clearly need to work on getting our parents to strongly agree with the statements.

Have a wonderful weekend, I will be in London on Sunday cheering on Mr. Worth who is completing the London Marathon. He has raised over £3,500 for the East Anglian Air Ambulance who helped our family two years ago when my father-in-law suffered a cardiac arrest. I am sure it will be an emotional day.

Kind regards,

Claire Worth,

Headteacher
