What did the judges say about this film?

An excellent animation film with a strong sense of visual impact and creative use of stop- frame.

The art work complements the story very well with good use of set, drawings, cut out and dialogue.

Great use of 3 different types of animation that gave a good flow, due to good variety.

Great voice performances and animation on the sun face.

The script supports a clear narrative and the atmosphere of the film brightens thematically towards the end
