HUMAN RIGHTS

In implementing this policy the school will seek to ensure that its actions are in accordance with its obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998 and the Convention Rights embodied within it in order to protect the Human Rights of both persistent complainants and all other stakeholders.

WHO IS A PERSISTENT COMPLAINANT?

For the purpose of this policy, a persistent complainant is a parent/carer or member of the public who complains about issues, either formally or informally, or frequently raises issues that the complainant considers to be within the remit of the school and whose behaviour is unreasonable. Such behaviour may be characterised by:

- b) prolific correspondence or excessive e-mail or telephone contact about a concern or complaint
- c) an insistence upon pursuing unmeritorious complaints and/or unrealistic or unreasonable outcomes
- d) an insistence upon pursuing meritorious complaints in an unreasonable manner

For the purpose of this policy, harassment is the unreasonable pursuit of such actions as in (a) to (d) above in such a way that they:

- a) appear to be targeted over a significant period of time on one or more members of school staff and/or
- b) cause ongoing distress to individual member(s) of school staff and/or

- f) keep complaints informed of progress towards a resolution of the issues raised

THE SCHOOL'S EXPECTATIONS OF PARENTS/CARERS/MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC

The school can expect parents/carers/members of the public who wish to raise problems with the school to:

- a) treat all school staff with courtesy and respect
- b) respect the needs and well-being of pupils and staff within the school
- c) avoid any use, or threatened use, of violence to people or property
- d) avoid any aggression or verbal abuse
- e) recognise the time constraints under which members of staff in schools work and allow the school a reasonable time to respond
- f) recognise that resolving a specific problem can sometimes take some time
- g) (in case of a complaint) follow the school's complaints procedure.

THE SCHOOL'S ACTIONS IN CASES OF PERSISTENT COMPLAINT OR HARASSMENT

The school will take the following consecutive steps as necessary if the complainant's behaviour is not modified:

- a) verbally inform the complainant that his/her behaviour is considered to be becoming unreasonable/unacceptable and may be considered to fall under the terms of this policy
- b) inform the complainant in writing that his/her behaviour is now considered by the school to be becoming unreasonable/unacceptable (see Model Letter 1)
- c) inform the complainant in writing that his/her behaviour is now considered by the school to fall under the terms of this policy (see Model Letter 2)
- d) inform the complainant that all meetings with a member of staff will be conducted with a second person present and that notes of meetings may be taken in the interests of all parties (see Model Letter 3)
- e) inform the complainant that, except in emergencies, all communication from the complainant to the school should be carried out in writing (see Model Letter 4)
- f) (in the case of physical or verbal aggression) refer to Schools Briefing Paper 15 and consider warning the complainant about being banned from the school site; or proceed straight to a temporary ban. (Advice is available from the Schools Helpline, 01223 717970)

- g) consider taking advice from Cambridgeshire County Council on requesting an Anti-Social Behaviour Order (01223 717970)
- h) consider taking advice from Cambridgeshire County Council on pursuing a case under Anti-Harassment legislation (01223 717970).

Legitimate new complaints will still be considered even if the person making them is, or has been, subject to the Persistent Complaints/Harassment Policy. In these circumstances advice may be sought from the LEA (01223 717970).

If a complainant's persistent complaining/harassing behaviour is modified and is then resumed at a later date within a reasonable period of time, the school may resume the process identified above at an appropriate level. In these circumstances advice may be sought from the LEA (01223 717970).
