Nature Detectives

Can you spot these 'signs of summer' on a walk?

- brightly coloured wild flowers
- fluffy dandelion clocks
- nibbled leaves
- a soft feather
- spotty ladybirds
- a four leaf clover

Getting ready for Year 1 with Miss Jackson

Yesterday we listened to Supertato. Imagine you were a superhero. What would you be? What would your super power be? Use the resources attached to draw a picture of your superhero and write what your powers would be.

PHONICS - Tricky word Tuesday

Complete a tricky word hunt in your house. Use the words oh, their, Mr, could and people (or any words that your child finds difficult). There are ideas for clues to find the words attached. You could have a treat at the end.

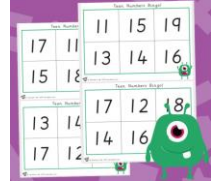

Practise reading tricky words using tricky word trucks <https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/resources/phase/2/tricky-word-trucks> (username: March20, password: home) We have learned tricky troll words up to and including Phase 5a.

Practise writing tricky troll words - were and there. Use chalk, sand, flour, felt tips, playdough, magnets.

Maths - Teen number games

Splat the numbers 10-20 with a spoon, spatula or fly swatter. You could move onto splatting the number one more/one less.

Play teen number bingo.

Reading Corner

Read a book with an adult. How many tricky troll words can you spot?
Did you like the story?
You could try reading a comic (select one from Phase 3 or Phase 4)

Get Creative some ideas

Lego challenge - You and your friends decide to build a tree house.
No Lego? No problem - use items from your recycling bin, wooden bricks, sticklebricks, etc.

Make a leaf face. Give it a name. You could make it on a paper plate

Tricky word hunt

1. I am hidden under the bed.

2. Look for me on the chair.

3. I am stuck to the sofa.

4. Look at me on the sink.

5. Can you see me on the window?
