

Our News Story	Focus	UN Article	British value
Farming groups have written to the government outlining how a rule change would allow farmers to temporarily stop public rights of way where animals are present.	Should we be allowed to walk wherever we like?		Rule of Law - Rules and laws are there to protect us. When rules and laws change, we understand that there will be a consequence if we do not follow them.
England footballer, Marcus Rashford has said "I could not be more proud to call myself British" after authorities went against the Government's refusal to fund meals over the recent half-term.	Do famous people have a responsibility to use their voice to help others?		Mutual Respect and Tolerance - We all have different family circumstances; some people need more support than others. Famous people sometimes use their position to encourage us to respect this and reach out to families to do what we can to help.
Personal trainer, Joe Wicks announced on social media that he will be returning to recording his exercise class - Wake Up With Joe. Joe says he wants to help us to get a bit more exercise in our lives.	What are the best ways for us to keep active?		Individual Liberty - I can choose to keep active on my own or as part of a team, through a hobby or in my daily routines. I understand that keeping active will help me to stay healthy.
Boys' elite football academies for under-16s have been allowed to continue during England's four-week lockdown but girls' equivalent regional training centres have been stopped.	Should we always be treated the same?		Mutual Respect - There may be times when we don't feel we are being fairly treated or given the same opportunities. In these times, we can use our voices to speak and let others know how we feel.
Plans to dig a road tunnel, near the ancient monument site of Stonehenge in Salisbury, have been approved by the Transport Secretary, Grant Shapps.	Should a tunnel be allowed to be built near Stonehenge?		Democracy - People can have very different views about preserving ancient heritage sites. We can discuss the issue in a calm way and show respect for others even when we disagree with them.
Two notebooks thought to be worth millions of pounds, belonging to the scientist Charles Darwin, have been reported stolen from Cambridge University Library 20 years after they were last seen.	How can we keep our memories alive?		Mutual Respect and Tolerance - We all have memories that are a record of our lives and the experiences we have had. Memories can evoke different feelings in each of us. Letters, photos and other special objects can bring these memories to life in different ways for different people.
This year's John Lewis Christmas advert revolves around a theme inspired by the kindness of the British public during the coronavirus pandemic.	How can we show we care from afar?		Mutual Respect and Tolerance - We can show kindness in many ways, like giving a hug or smiling at someone. When someone is far away, we can write a letter or send flowers to show we care. All acts of kindness, no matter how small they seem, will have a positive effect on those around us!