St. Luke's Governing Body 2019 - 2020 (Updated September 2019)

Dear Families and Friends

I would like to introduce you to our Governors; the Governing Body are in place to support the school and to ensure that we, as a school, provide the best possible opportunities for all our pupils. They are here to make sure we do our best for you and your children.

Kind regards, Amanda Butler, Headteacher

Rhidian Jones is the chair of the Governing Body. He has spent several years as a secondary school teacher, before entering local government as an Education Officer. He has lived in Maidenhead since 1998 when he took up a post in the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead in the authority's Special Educational Needs department.

Sally Lynch is the Vicar of St. Luke's Church, linked closely to the school. Sally used to teach Religious Education and was a Deputy Head teacher and Head Teacher in Essex. She has a passion for Church School education and is committed to inter-faith working. She is the Vice Chair.

Emmaleen Dean has been a member of the staff at St. Luke's since April 2016. She is a teaching assistant, supporting children with special educational needs and provides alternative learning sessions in the afternoons. She enjoys keeping fit and reading when she has the time. She was elected staff governor in October this year and is pleased to bring her experience of working in the school to the governing body.
