

Seen in the local area update

A pair of swans have made a nest on the far bank of the river when viewed from the bottom of Little Shelford Rec.

Seen several times in the last few days in the same part of the river is a mallard duck with eleven ducklings! Yes - she has hatched eleven ducklings! They seem to be only a few days old.